Thursday, September 16, 2010
“Torture and its helper: A conversation about collaboration.”
William Schulz, PhD. - Acting President and CEO of the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee; Senior Fellow, Center for American Progress specializing in human rights; has served as a consultant for MacArthur Fdn, UN Fdn, Kellogg Fdn and Humanity United of the Omidyar Network. From 1994-2006 Dr. Schultz served as Executive Director of Amnesty International USA and is also an ordained Unitarian Universalist minister.

Jonathan Moreno, PhD. - David & Lyn Silfen Professor University of Pennsylvania- Acting Chair, University of Pennsylvania Department of Medical Ethics, Senior Fellow at the Center for American Progress

Monday, September 27, 2010
Title to be announced
Sylvia & Solomon Bronstein Lecturer - Ulf Schmidt, Ph.D.
Professor, Modern History-University of Kent, Canterbury

Wednesday, October 6, 2010
"What to Do When Medicine Runs Amok in Pursuit of Normality? Putting Feminism into Action to Protect Families ‘At Risk’ for Atypical Sex, Gender, and Sexual Orientation"
NOTE: 4PM-Reception–Ctr for Bioethics 3401, Market St #331
530PM-Lecture Location-Houston Hall-Hall of Flags
Alice Dreger, Ph.D.
Professor of Clinical Medical Humanities and Bioethics , Feinberg School of Medicine, Northwestern University
(co-sponsored by The Dept of History and Sociology of Science University of Pennsylvania)

Tuesday, November 9, 2010
Title to be announced
Jo Ann Caplin
President & Executive Producer
Science Television Workshop-A science media company

Thursday, Dec. 2, 2010
“Last Acts: Discovering Possibility and Opportunity at the End of Life”
David Casarett, M.D.
Associate Professor, Geriatrics
University of Pennsylvania